LARRY LLOYD

Good evening, and welcome to Peterborough United, for our first meeting with them this season. They have figured in the promotion scene for the past few seasons, and I am sure this season will be no different.

Our home form this season, despite picking up a lot of useful points, has been generally disappointing, as we seem to play our best football away from home, so it would be satisfactory if we could turn in a sparkling performance tonight, and against the better clubs, this is always possible.

Once again the weather has played havoc with the fixtures, but we have managed to keep sharp with some practice matches and some hard training sessions. The result and performance of the team after the last lay-off could not have been better, so let us hope for the same thing tonight.

Best Wishes,

Larry Lloyd.

BRADFORD CITY A.F.C. (1908) LIMITED

The entry of Bradford City into the Football League in 1903 was remarkable for two reasons. The first was that the club had the distinction of being admitted in May 1903 before they had played a match; the second was that it marked the birth of Association Football in Manningham in what had been a Rugby stronghold.

Any doubts that both decisions were premature were dispelled soon. Four years later the Second Division Championship was won and three years later, in 1911, the F.A. Cup was carried back to Bradford after beating Newcastle United in a replayed final, in a season in which the club finished fifth in the First Division.

Since those early days success has been hard to come by, bright spots being the winning of the old Third Division (North) Championship in 1928-29 and promotion to the Third Division in 1968-69 and in 1976-77 while the excellent F.A. Cup run in 1975-76 to the sixth round, and going out to the eventual winners, Southampton, provided a welcome upsurge in the club's fortunes.

One great advantage of my job is that I am able to express my opinions through this column, and on one certain matter I feel rather strongly; that is, the description in the press of our crowd of 4,133 at the Tranmere game as "miserable". That particular game was organised on New Years Eve and, with no papers on the Bank Holiday, it was Saturday before the local paper could publicise the game properly, and it was Tuesday before the national press mentioned it. Not only was it difficult to discover the game was on, (some people turned up expecting to see Aldershot!), it was a very cold night, and whilst we may have invented "all-weather" pitches, we have yet to develop "all-weather" spectators. Whilst I was predicting a crowd of 3,500, we had over 4,000 — and only fifty five of them were from Tranmere. So to the 4,133, and all those who could not make it for whatever reason, "thank you".

On a lighter note, I was recently reckoning up our disciplinary points, when Duncan Colquhoun, our physiotherapist, walked into my office and told me about one of the rare occasions when he incurred the wrath of the referee. After a rather heavy tackle on one of the opposition, Duncan was summoned to the referee's side. "Name", said the ref? "Duncan Colquhoun", came the reply, in as broad a Scottish accent as you will ever hear. "What?" said a confused ref. "Duncan Colquhoun" "Duncheonboon?" "No, Duncan Colquhoun". Still baffled, the referee put his pencil and book away and said, "Well, Dunbar Too Soon, clear off and don't do it again!"

Best wishes,
Colin Burke. Secretary.

THE LOCAL VIEW

Harold Ashurst

The weather continues to wipe out the majority of amateur and schoolboy games, with match after match being called off, sometimes days in advance of it's scheduled playing date. Needless to say, because of that situation, the amateur soccer scene is quiet at the moment, with officials of all the teams in the area clicking their heels, twiddling their thumbs and the like, and praying for a thaw and a break in the weather. The situation now borders on the critical, with both Wigan Amateur League, and the Post and Chronicle, watching a build-up of postponed games, and powerless to do a thing about it.

But the situation doesn't end there. Even when the grounds do thaw, many of them will face the problem of flooding, and of course the conditions recently, mean they haven't been rolled, so pools of water will no doubt be in evidence. Not all grounds will be affected of course, Wigan has it's noted flooding grounds, but it also has pitches renowned for clearing and getting back to normal quickly, so teams will probably have to use these to the full extent when the thaw eventually comes.

Recent developments took place on the proposed sports complex in Scot Lane, and if all goes well, there should be some extra pitches available for soccer clubs next season. A recent meeting of Wigan Recreation and Amenities Committee, the body responsible for pitches and all leisure activities, called for a "more realistic" report on the proposed cost of the sports complex on the reclaimed land, after hearing one estimate of £5 million. That's totally out of their reach of course, but that decision shouldn't affect the work currently being done there, which is the seeding of the ground, and the preparation of football and rugby pitches. No-one knows yet how many fields will be available but if the land is utilised to the full, there should be some easing of the present critical pitch situation in the town.

And more good news is that work is expected to be completed in August this year, in time for the new local soccer season to begin.

Watch this space for further developments.

NOTICE BOARD

Mr. J. Howalik,
Battersby Street,
Higher Ince,
Nr. Wigan.

Dear Sir,

As regards Tuesday's match against Tranmere Rovers, I find myself putting pen to paper. I wholeheartedly agree with Larry Lloyd's comments regarding the minority of people (not fans) at all home matches. I think that their only hobby is to come down to the ground, and for ninety minutes non-stop, try to shout the players down.

They sometimes go right through the team with their abuse, I as a true fan, like us to win every game, but that's impossible. We have slip-ups, we've got to take the rough with the smooth. I personally think since the season started, it's been like a breath of fresh air at Springfield Park. We've got the players who want to win, we've got a manager committed to getting promotion, and what's more important, we've got directors who believe in going places, and want to get there!

We for our part (the "True Blues"), must get right behind our team. At times Springfield Park on match days resembles a morgue. We wait and see what's going on before we commit our support. There's one thing certain, the teams above us will not give up easily a place in Division Three, so it's important that we all help one another on the field, and off it!

Yours sincerely,
Mr. J. Howalik.

Any contributions to this section of the programme should be addressed to "Notice Board", Commercial Department, Wigan Athletic A.F.C. Ltd., Springfield Park, Wigan.

OUT & ABOUT

with Chris Gill

The weather can have the strangest effect on people... especially when it deprives soccer starved fanatics of their regular fayre. And there lies a tale as to what I was doing, freezing to death, high on the moors, (it felt like it), at Boundary Park on Boxing Day. A fixture between Oldham Athletic and Blackburn Rovers isn't exactly anyone's cup of tea... and it didn't take me long to find out it wasn't mine either.

The game was hit and miss, and all over by the interval, by which time most of the Rovers fans were overcome with Festive Cheer. The Oldham fans, or most of them, didn't seem to have an opinion. Simply because most of them were still queuing to get in by the time their seats had fallen 2-0 behind.

And that's where I must stand back and admire the British public. I mean, who else would queue up in sub-zero temperatures, on a public holiday, for the privilege of paying £1.70 to get in to a game 30 minutes late... to find their team already trailing by 2-0.

Anyway, it wasn't all that bad, but I'm afraid the man who came to open the gates late on in the game, nearly got crushed in my rush to get home.

Incidentally, those of you who journeyed through the fog, ice and snow to Mansfield might have admired the main stand at Field Mill. Well, you might be surprised to learn that the same stand once housed hundreds of punters at a racecourse (I can't remember which one).

Carefully, it was patiently taken down bit by bit and transported to Nottinghamshire, to be put together again — that's what I call thriftiness.

Anyway, let's hope the weather relents to enable Clubs to catch up on the backlog of fixtures. Ladies next trip is to Northampton, where, if the pitch is too treacherous, we could always ask the groundsman to prepare a wicket, and slog it out over 50 overs for the three points!

Believe it or not, these are the first Programme Notes to be written for over a month. The notes for the Tranmere game were actually written in Mid December, so there is quite a bit of catching up to do.

As most of you will realise, the "All-Weather Pitch" didn't quite live up to its name, having been closed for over a month. It wasn't the fault of the surface, but the dressing rooms — the freezing weather burst all the pipes. Because of this the netball had to be suspended, but happily, or hopefully, we should be able to resume this weekend Friday 5.00 p.m. 8.00 p.m. Sunday 11.00 a.m. - 12.00 p.m.

The Coca Cola sessions start again on Saturday, 23rd January so if you haven't already put your name down and you want to take part, please give me a ring.

On the soccer front it looks as though we may, at last, have found a home. Although it is not quite signed and sealed, I'm pretty optimistic it soon will be, but after all the disappointments of the past, that's all I'm going to say for now.

We will be announcing details of a Penalty Prize Competition within the next few weeks. All members will be able to take part and the finals will be held on the Springfield Park pitch. More details in a week or so.

All those who attended our last meeting with Elton Welsby will know what a great night it was. It's not easy handing out 60 or so Certificates and Badges one after the other, believe me, but I do know that Elton himself enjoyed the evening and was greatly impressed with the Junior Latics.

Matchday Mascot

Tonight's Mascot is 10 year old David Price from Springfield.

He attends Sacred Heart Junior School and his hobbies are Soccer, Rugby and Swimming.

David says his favourite players are David Glenn, Larry Lloyd and Colin Methven.
Have a happy day David.

SUPPORTERS' CLUB BRANCHES

We are well aware that many of our supporters live too far from Springfield Park to take part in the activities of the Supporters' Club.

It is intended, therefore, to establish Branches of the Club in the various areas in and around Wigan, hopefully based in pubs or clubs, where groups can meet, and organise, various events at which players, management, staff and directors, can attend to hear the views of the fans. Quiz nights, forums, and other social events, lubricated by whatever fine ale happens to be sold on the premises, are examples of the kind of activities envisaged.

So, if you're interested in starting a branch, write in to the Chairman of the Supporters' Club, Springfield Park, Wigan, who will arrange for inaugural meetings to be attended by the players. If Manchester United have got branches of their Supporters' Club in Borneo, surely we can have one in Leigh!!

Comment FROM THE CHAIR

This evening's warm welcome to the Directors, players and supporters of Peterborough United is unfortunately also a sad one, as I pass on to them the condolences of all at Wigan Athletic, on the very recent death of their Chairman, Mr. H.W. Wright, a gentleman whose hard work and devotion to the game will be sadly missed.

You may have read in the press that I have received a few letters of complaint concerning barrack-room language on the pitch at Springfield Park. I have discussed the matter with the manager, Larry Lloyd, who is man enough to accept the criticism. It is always difficult to ensure that this aggression and energy in his play does not overflow, and I am sure that in his efforts to become one of the country's top managers, he will learn to bite his tongue and not get carried away, and I would ask the fans to get behind him on this.

With the big freeze continuing to cause havoc with the League and Cup programmes, there is a great deal of talk of having a regular break in the season. This would, however, surely lead to a lack in continuity, and a fall off of interest, and rather than a break, I think it would make more sense to start the season in mid-February, and continue straight through until mid-November. Whilst it might cause problems for the World Cup, this only takes place every four years, and the main concern of clubs must be to ensure that supporters can watch games played on a proper surface, and watch them in as great a degree of comfort as is possible.

This week we have signed a young forward, John Butler, from Prescott Cables in the Cheshire League, and we hope that after a spell in the reserves, he will develop into the class of player which his present form promises. We are still enquiring at the highest level for a mid-field player, and our recently rejected bid of £40,000 for a First Division player proves that, even with our financial position being in a poor state, we are prepared to go to great lengths to ensure success and promotion.

Enjoy tonight's game.

Yours sincerely,

Freddie Pye

Freddie Pye,
Chairman.
